

All One Family: The Watervliet, Ohio, Shaker Village, 1806 1900

Before the Miller House opens to the public at Carillon Park this spring, spend some time learning about the people who lived there! On Tuesday, November 10, retired librarian Leon Bey will give a presentation on the Watervliet Shaker settlement exclusively for Dayton History volunteers. Light refreshments will be served. Spouses and/or guests are welcome.

When: Tuesday, November 10, 2009, 3:00pm

Where: Kettering Family Education Center at Carillon Historical Park

Please RSVP to Andrea, 293-2841 ext. 102, or agreeen@daytonhistory.org

HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

All Dayton History volunteers are invited to attend an open house and cookie exchange to celebrate the holiday season!

On Thursday, December 3, join Dayton History volunteers and staff for an afternoon of fun.

Bring a plate of Christmas cookies to share...a prize will be awarded to the baker of the afternoon's favorite cookie!

The event will take place from 3-6pm in the IAMS Room of the Kettering Family Education Center. Beverages and snacks will be provided in addition to your cookies!

Please RSVP to Andrea if you will attend! 293-2841 ext. 102.

Dayton History Sweatshirts!

As the temperatures begin to drop, we will again be ordering Dayton History sweatshirts for those volunteers and staff who are interested. The sweatshirts will be red with the black Dayton History logo, identical to the shirts ordered last year. This year, however, only the quarter-zip sweatshirts are available. The cost will be approximately $20-25. Please see Andrea for an order form!

Brandi would like to send a big "THANK YOU" to all of our volunteers who helped with Tavern Dinners and Hallow's Eve at the Patterson Homestead. Both events were a great success, and we couldn't have done it without you! Thank you again!

Ring in the Holidays 2009

There is much work to be done to turn the Kettering Family Education Center into a holiday wonderland, and your help would be welcomed! This year's Ringing in the Holidays celebration will take place on Sunday, November 22, and most decorating will take place during the previous week.

If you would like to help decorate for this year's event at Carillon Historical Park, please contact Andrea at 293-2841 ext. 102 or agreen@daytonhistory.org.

INTERPRETER CORNER

Guided Tour Season Training

Our next sessions of Interpreter Training will take place on Wednesday, November 11 and Thursday, November 12. At these training sessions, you will learn the procedures for the 2009-2010 guided tour season. In addition, we will be including some new material about successful interpretive strategies.

Don't miss this opportunity to take your interpretation to the next level when talking with visitors at Carillon Historical Park!

The following four sessions will be offered:

Wednesday, November 11, 9:30am-12:30pm

Wednesday, November 11, 1:30pm-4:30pm

Thursday, November 12, 9:30am-12:30pm

Thursday, November 12, 1:30pm-4:30pm

Lunch will be provided both days at 12:30pm, so plan to stay late or arrive early to enjoy a meal and spend time socializing with other volunteers!

Please contact Andrea to sign up for training: 293-2841 ext 102 or agreen@daytonhistory.org.

We look forward to seeing you!

Bring a Friend!

Do you know anyone who would like to become a Dayton History volunteer? Andrea would be more than happy to provide information to anyone who is interested! Please contact her if you have any questions or would like to pick up a Potential Volunteer Packet.

Don't Miss the Final Carillon Concerts of the Year!

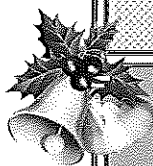

Bring the whole family to enjoy the ringing of the Deeds Carillon bells a few more times this year:

Wednesday, November 11, 11am—Veterans Day

Sunday, November 22, 5pm—Ringing in the Holidays

Monday, December 7, 9am—Pearl Harbor Day

Sunday, December 13, 3pm—Christmas Concert

REMEMBER: Carillon Historical Park is OPEN 360 days a year! If you are talking with visitors or friends, remind them that the Park does not close seasonally as it has done in the past. Also, if you have family in for the holidays, consider bringing them to the Park for a visit. The Rail and Steam Society trains will run from 1-4pm on November 28 and December 19...perfect for the kids or grandkids in your life!

Thanksgiving and Christmas at CHP

Historically, the Park has been very busy around the winter holidays. Please consider volunteering an extra day or half day during either of the following "holiday rush" times:

November 27-29

December 26-30

If you can help out, please let Andrea know!

WELCOME!!!

The following volunteers have joined the Dayton History family!

John Canelli—Interpreter

Laura Hardy—Office Administration

Fran Kender—Interpreter/Office Administration
